The meeting was called to order by Chairman, Mary Darnell.

The first order of business was the approval of the minutes for August 16, 2010. On motion by Mary Talbert, seconded by Martha Sue Westbrook, the minutes for August 16th were approved.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT: Mary Darnell passed out the calendar for 2011. On motion by Martha Sue Westbrook, seconded by Carol Rangel the calendar for 2011 was approved with corrections.

THANKSGIVING LUNCHEON: Discussion was had regarding the annual luncheon for Thanksgiving. It was decided to hold the luncheon on the 2nd Monday in November instead of the 3rd Monday since that would be Thanksgiving week. On motion by Mary Talbert, seconded by Martha Sue Westbrook, this change was approved. The Thanksgiving luncheon will be held on Monday, November 15th at the RiverPlace. Bids for catering will be reviewed at the October meeting and final details will be discussed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

ADVERTISING: No report

SPECIAL PROGRAMS: Suggestions were made for our next special program to be held in February. One suggestion was to have a Master Gardner from Texas A&M extension in Angleton give a program on "container gardens". Mary Talbert will look into this and other ideas.

DAY TRIPS: Mary Darnell will work on a trip in November to Old Town Spring for Christmas shopping. Also she will investigate the possibility of going to Galveston in January to the Oak Ridge Boys performance at the Grand on January 8th.

BINGO: October will be the next Bingo event.

GAME DAY: Good turn out today for Game Day. Everyone seemed to enjoy it.

FOOD: No report.

PHONE: No report.

There being so further business, the meeting was adjourned
